

Set on 1.2 kilometres of stunning coastline at West Beach with two accommodation properties, meeting and event spaces – and a superb list of facilities – Adelaide Shores is perfect for group travel.

Groups are spoilt for choice with a wide range of accommodation options in either the Resort or Caravan Park. Experienced hosts of school camps, mass participation sporting events, business retreats, reunions and religious gatherings, Adelaide Shores partners with you to make your group experience unforgettable.

SCHOOL CAMP PROGRAM

Edu-FEST is an education program that offers a menu of fitness, environmental, sport and team-building activities.

It's loved by teachers and parents, as well as kids, with a tailored program to meet your group's educational and developmental needs.

WHAT TO SEE AND DO...

A unique location, capturing the best of beach and city life, makes Adelaide Shores the ideal base for exploring Adelaide's vibrant beach suburbs, and for discovering the Adelaide CBD and beyond. Adelaide Shores is nestled between lively shopping and restaurant precincts at Glenelg and Henley Beach.

Enjoy some local attractions...

- Explore The Beachouse family entertainment centre on the Glenelg foreshore. It has heated waterslides, bumper cars and more!
- Pick up designer bargains at HarbourTown outlet mall, just five minutes away by car and accessible by public transport
- Watch or swim with dolphins at Glenelg's Temptation Sailing

South Australia is famous for its food and wine, its beaches and the Adelaide Hills. Let our friendly reception staff help you make the most of your time here.

ADELAIDE SHORES FOR GROUPS STAY & PLAY

PERFECT FOR A GROUP STAY

THE BUNKHOUSE (BELOW)

The colourful 55-person Bunkhouse – located within the Caravan Park – is ideal for school, sporting or community groups. It features 11 four-bed bunk rooms, two leader rooms and one crew room. All spill out into a private undercover seating area for meals or group activities.

THE ADELAIDE SHORES PRECINCT

THE DORM (RIGHT)

Also based at the Caravan Park, the Dorm is ideal for smaller groups or those wanting to share one large room. It has open-plan bunk bed accommodation for a further 28 people and includes a kitchenette.

Both group accommodation options are close to the large camp kitchen and amenities, as well as all the fun facilities Adelaide Shores Caravan Park has to offer!

ADELAIDE SHORES CARAVAN PARK

Adelaide Shores Caravan Park is a paradise for children and adults, offering over 100 cabins and 300 plus camping and caravanning sites with direct beach access. There are extensive bathroom and laundry amenities, heated pools, the Splash Zone zero-depth water play area, jumping pillows, games and TV rooms, go kart hire, on-site tourism information and bookings, plus a licensed café.

ADELAIDE SHORES RESORT

Boasting spacious, lush grounds, the Adelaide Shores Resort can accommodate over 400 guests in 22 bungalows, 30 villas and 32 holiday units. For groups, the centrally located Garden View function room is perfect for meetings, conferences or celebrations, and has ample on-site parking.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

A stunning natural environment and ideal location makes Adelaide Shores the perfect setting for a conference, celebration or retreat. Six different meeting and events spaces holding up to 200 delegates are available, all with ocean or garden views. An expert functions team can configure rooms to suit any occasion and tailor catering packages to meet your requirements, whether you want BBQs, packed lunches or gourmet sit-down meals.

A South Australian icon, the Adelaide Shores tourism and recreation precinct covers 135 hectares of beachfront land at West Beach. With so much to see and do within the precinct, you'll never want to leave ...

For adults and children alike, there's something for everyone here ...
